

Recollections of the Dream

I remember waking up from this nightmare thankful, That I survived something like this in my sleep of this magnitude.

Sometimes people don't wake up from nightmares like mine,

The horror scares them and their bodies go into shock.
There were so many things that happened and occurred, Meanwhile I'm thankful to have been able to remember what happened.

All that I could recollect from my time while I was asleep, I'm surprised that I have an impeccable memory of all the events in this dream.

Maybe it's because I started writing everything down right away,

As soon as I woke up, I began writing all of what I remembered.

It was hard to write all that I saw in this dream which still haunts me,

Now I know what's to come of the world if we don't do what's right.

The present day is bad enough as it is to be brutally honest,
But the world will be in it's darkest days if we don't start making changes.

Being more cognizant of what's really going on in the world daily,

Instead of being focused and fixated on all of the unnecessary things.

This dream made me realize how terrible we live in today's age,
But also that the future isn't guaranteed if we don't realize what's going on around us.
